FEE-HELP

The Higher Education Loan Program includes a loan scheme called FEE-HELP for domestic fee-paying students. Eligible students can take out a FEE-HELP loan to assist with their tuition fees. Eligible students may choose to defer some, or all, of their tuition fees to FEE-HELP. A FEE-HELP Loan is available to students who are either Australian Citizens or Australian Permanent Residents with a humanitarian visa, and some continuing students.

The current fee help loan limit is currently $113,028 (this amount is subject to change).

The Commonwealth government has implemented a waiver on the FEE-HELP administration fee for students as a response to supporting students during the COVID pandemic. Subject to the passage of legislation, the Government is extending the exemption until 31 December 2022.

To find out more about FEE-HELP please consult the FEE-HELP section of the Study Assist website at: Fee-Help
